LIFE • SCHOOL • STORY

A Message From The Editor

As editor of the yearbook I would like to take a minute to reflect on a few things. Although this may sound cliché, this is only the beginning. We hear it all too often that these will be the best years of our life. Whether they will be or not we should remember to cherish them always.

The last four years have flown by, and though most of the time, the days felt as though they would never end, the months and years always ended before we had time to think about them. Which is why it feels like it was just yesterday we were entering our very first day of school; not realizing that in a few short months we would be marching down the aisle to receive the one thing we set out to achieve, our diplomas.

A Message From The Principal

On behalf of the students, faculty and support staff members of Telstar High School I would like to congratulate the Class of 2014 for a job well done.

"Happy are those who dream dreams and are willing to pay the price to make them come true." W. Stone

The last four years have provided you, the members of the Class of 2014, many opportunities to have goals, make plans, and prepare for your future. You have had the chance to dream of what you want to do. Now as we approach graduation - are you willing to pay the price to carry out your plans and make your dreams come true?

Yes, I believe many of you can carry out your plans and will make your dreams come true. To those of you who have not yet determined a course of action to follow, its not too late or impossible - if you are willing to make a commitment and pay the price to make your dreams come true. As you pursue your dreams, remember and practice the Golden Rule - treat all others as you like to be treated and, have pride in everything you do.

I wish to express my appreciation to each of you for your academic successes, co-curricular and extra-curricular experiences, peer leadership activities, and school and community service during your years at Telstar High School. We are a better school because of you and expect you to continue to excel and serve others in your future endeavors.

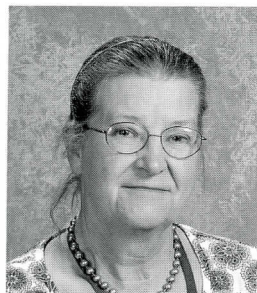

What type of person will you be in your future? Will you direct your life's journey or will you let life direct your journey?

My best wishes to each of you... The Class of 2014.

To the class of 2014:

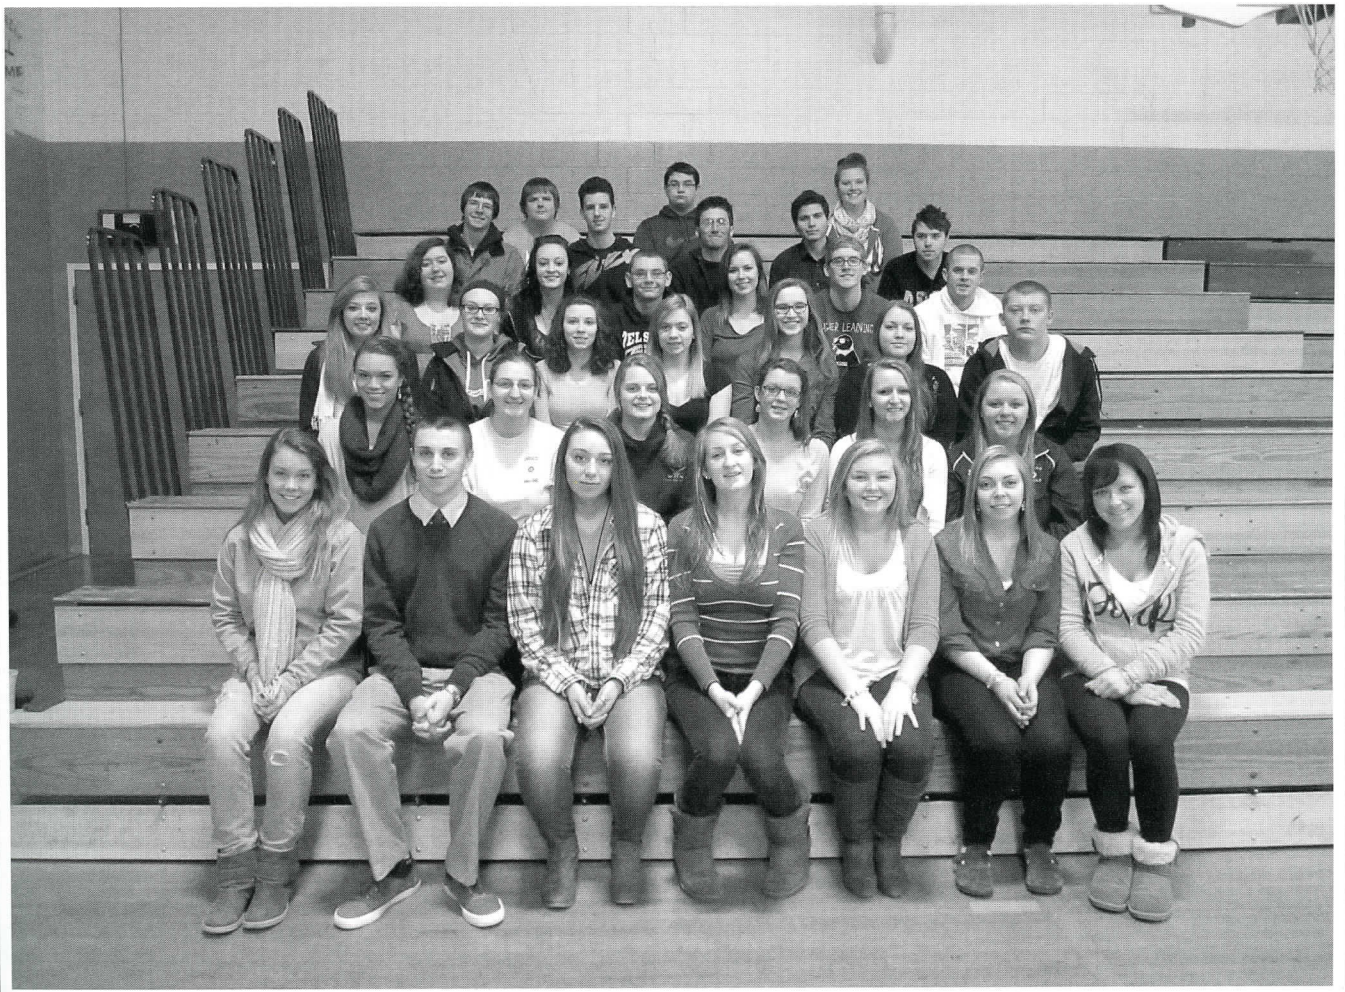

Dream Big. Follow your heart. Make lots of friends. Don't be afraid of change. You will meet challenges that will make you cry and even want to give up. Don't ever give up on yourself. You all have the potential to be leaders, entrepreneurs, athletes, scientists, teachers, lawyers, doctors, social workers.

The list is long. The possibilities are endless.

Believe in yourself.

I do not have many to words to say other than it is finally over. I am glad to leave and to see new faces and places. These past couple of years have been extremely tough for me. However, now that it is the end of the year and everyone is leaving; going to college, military, or moving away, I am glad to see it go. Go into the world and find myself. I wish nothing but the utmost best for everyone who has been in my life. I honestly mean everyone, for my current friends, friends who didn't stay through, teachers, coaches, and the people who have taught me who I am and helped me realize I can overcome any curve ball thrown at me.

People are often unreasonable, irrational, and self-centered. Forgive them anyway.

If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives. Be kind anyway.

If you are successful, you will win some unfaithful friends and some genuine enemies. Succeed anyway.

If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you. Be honest and frank anyway.

What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight. Build anyway.

If you find serenity and happiness, some may be jealous. Be happy anyway.

The good you do today, will often be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway.

Give the world best you have, and it may never be enough. Give your best anyway.

It's crazy how the years have flown by and it is now time to start a whole new chapter of my life. Part of me is nervous but the other part is excited to see what will come on my journey. I'd like to thank the teachers that helped me make it where I'm at today, I can't thank you enough for all your extra help. Thank you Mom and Dad for EVERYTHING you did for me, thank you for the support, love, encouragement you gave me not only through my high school years but my entire life. I love you both with all my heart to the moon and back<3 Thank you to my brother who was always there when I needed him, you truly are the best big brother any sister could ask for, I love you. Thank you William for everything, always being there for me. Thank you for always having faith and believing in me when I lost faith and stopped believing in myself. I love you more than life itself. Thank to all my friends, you know who you are, for being true friends, I love you. Especially Autum, you're not only my best friend but you are forever my sister, thank you for everything you do and just being you. I love you. Well class of 2014, it's our time to shine! I couldn't ask for a better class to be graduating with. Remember where ever life brings you live it with a smile :)

It's crazy to think that it's finally our turn to graduate. These past few years have flown by, and have been filled with both the best and the worst times of my life. I'd like to thank everyone here at Telstar who helped me along the way. To my mom, thank you for everything you do for me. To my dad, thank you for everything you taught me, and for watching over me these last two years. I'd also like to thank my family and friends. I would never be here without the support from you guys. To the Class of 2014, thanks for the memories!

"Enjoy the little things in life for one day you'll look back and realize they were the big things."

My journey in high school has been a crazy one. From freshman year to spending my senior year getting a head start on college, it's been an unforgettable ride. Yet I wouldn't change it for anything. So thank you class of 2014 for making these years ones to remember! And a special thank you to Hali Barter for always being the best friend anyone could ask for!

Bronson Dean

The friends I've made in these past four years have made high school as great as it's been. Whether we're competing in sports, just hanging out, or mach 5 rippin', you guys have always been a great time. Wouldn't trade you dudes for the world. Also, I'd like to mention my mom's Chicken Alfredo, it's delicious and my world wouldn't spin without it. Mom and dad, you guys are alright too. I wanna thank all the teachers and coaches who made my days go a little bit better. Without sports and great teachers, this would've sucked. High school is so short compared to the rest of our lives, take it all in, but take it with a grain of salt, the bad moments can't compare to the good, don't dwell on the little things. "I never thought life would be this sweet, it's got me cheesing from cheek to cheek." Never stop rippin' 2014.

These past four years have been tough, but fun at the same time. I have a lot of memories.. some good, some bad.. Im never going to forget all fun times on the football field and baseball field. An all the cool boys packin lips in the bathroom, and the nasty kids wipin' poop on the walls ha.. theres a lot of messed up people in this school but i wouldn't change a thing that happened in these four years. Good luck to the class of 2014.

Gabrielle Monzo

Well the last four years have brought me to this moment, graduation. What a crazy last four years they have been at that. There's been many ups, and just as many downs. If the trio didn't greet me every morning with open arms, or Mr. Bennett's encouraging words and constant support high school would have been extremely different. As for the others, thank you for making me realize what I don't want in people that I surround myself around, it's been real.

Hunter, You have been by my side since the beginning of high school and I couldn't imagine being this far without you. I love you! Forever and Always <3

To my Field Hockey girls, I am going to miss you! Every year field hockey was what I looked forward to, even though same days we all dreaded those 20 minutes of running!

At times it was overwhelming and hard, but it was all worth it in the end.

So I walked down those halls memorizing everything, the gym, the classrooms, my friends desks, and the memories of the years that went all too quickly. Here I am leaving for the last time. Not coming back on Monday for homeroom. No more thanking the Lord that it was finally Friday. No more sleepy classes, No more gym periods, No more falling over giggling with my friends about a stupid pranks. I miss this place.

Reaching the end of high school seemed unfathomable not too many years ago. Although I have made it through the wilderness, I cannot give enough thanks to the people who have supported, guided, and loved me through this entire experience. I don't really know what to say. All I know is that I waited so long to be a senior and now I wish I could go back to CPS, better yet the West Bethel Children Center. I'm not the biggest fan of all this growing up, I can't seem to let go of memories. Now being a senior all of these memories are coming back to me. I'm not going to list off a bunch of friends because I don't want to forget anyone; basically everyone is my friend and if you have to think about it you must not be close enough. These four years have probably been the best of my life so far and they sure as hell won't be forgotten. That goes along with all of my friends too; we'll all go separate ways, but I'll always remember even the slightest little thing about you. I want to graduate, but then again I don't. I guess I just have to accept that the past is the past and keep pushin' on. -- <3 207

What I do know is that I am truly blessed to be part of an amazing group of people that I've known my whole childhood. I would also like to thank all the field hockey girls and Coaches, who made the four years on the team extremely fun and worth my while.

I would really like to thank my amazing cousin Kayla V. for helping me to get through school with much humor. That goes the same for my other amazing friend's Mariha(Martha;) Morin and Emily H, and to our other side kick's, you know who you are. Also, to my Mom and Papa for sticking with me all these years with love and support, to other friends and my teacher's: Mrs. Kuzyk <3, Mr. Bennett, Mrs. Bennett, Mr. Morton, Ms. Ingraham, and Mrs. O'jeda; thanks for everything. ## Kathryn Barbara Coolidge

After having 2 awesome sons, I never dreamed a daughter was in the cards for me! Especially not one as wonderful as you! You have brought so much love and joy to my life. A baby with chubby cheeks and very little hair. A tiny girl who barely grew for a few years. Someone who always appreciated every gift she received. Someone who told her Dad and I hundreds of times, "Mom, I love you. Daddy, I love you." A dancer, a singer, an honor student, a good friend, an aunty, a cousin, and most recently, Salutatorian of the Class of 2014! So very proud to be your mom. My heart breaks because Daddy isn't here to share in your graduation. You will always be his little girl, and he'll be in our hearts forever. Good luck, Kit, I love you.
Mom

Dakota Lynn Verrill

Dakota Lynn,

You are a joy! You have made us laugh right from the start! We are so proud of all your hard work. Go into the world but remain true to who you are. You are a blessing from God. We love you!
